

APRIL 3, 2008

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Welcome to the beautiful Easter season! It is my hope that each of you has had a personal encounter with our God who speaks to our hearts, "I am Enough!"

Well, we are all back at it after the Easter break and are having a tough time believing there are nine weeks left in our school year. This is a very valuable quarter in terms of getting ready for the next grade level. Please make sure that good study habits continue and assignments are neat, accurate, and turned in on time. Our goal this quarter is to lay the very best foundation for academic success!

This Thursday, 4/3, our 8th graders have the privilege of going to the Holocaust Museum. This is a direct outgrowth of both the English Lit and Social Studies curricula. If possible, they will be addressed by a survivor! Our students always leave this experience with more compassion and understanding than any textbook can impart.

On Friday, 4/4, our entire school celebrates Easter together at our 8:00 am Mass. Let the singing and joyful sounds begin! In the evening, our 6th, 7th, and 8th graders take over the gym for a dodge ball tournament sponsored by STUCO. If you attend the 8:00 Mass, look for the rainbow shirts our dodge ball participants will be wearing.

On Monday, 4/7, Sister Carol Jean will be visiting our school. Yes, you read that correctly - - - Sister Carol Jean will be here at All Saints School. She is en route to a School Sister of Notre Dame function and is coming a few days early to spend time with her mother . . . and us!

On Wednesday, 4/9, the musical talents of Catholic School students in the Archdiocese of St. Louis will be displayed and celebrated at the Fox Theatre. Congratulations to our students who were chosen to be part of the Archdiocese Youth Choir:

Emily G., Teresa V., Jesse G., Rachel P., Belle M., & Elaine E.

These parents/guardians, Father Don, and I have been invited to the gala event- - - a true first for the Archdiocese of St. Louis! A huge thank you goes out to Ms. Barb Randazzo, music teacher, parents/guardians, and the above named students for the sacrifices of time and travel to attend nightly rehearsals at quite a distance.

And on Wednesday (4/16 - - - a week early) our administrative assistant, Mrs. Diane Ziegemeier, and our school secretary, Mrs. Sandy Mueller, will be "swept away" to enjoy an extended lunch. Feel free to send congrats or thanks - - - either on this day or the "real" day, 4/23. Aren't they the best!?!?
